WHY THE AMERICAN LEGION RIDERS WERE FORMED

The Legion Riders is a national organization formed to participate in parades and other ceremonies that are in keeping with the aims and purposes of the American Legion. We promote motorcycle safety programs and provide a social atmosphere for our members who share the same interest. We support and promote programs of the American Legion and other charitable causes.

The American Legion Riders is not a M/C and does not practice M/C rules or regulations. We are a family-oriented organization.
